Dear Sir/Madam,

I have an Electrical and Telecommunication Degree with excellent analytical and people skills. My score is 8.8 CGPA with interests in Neural Network architecture and Deep Learning. I have been an active participant in various extracurricular activities at PC-COE.

I have done projects in Online Consumer Buying Behavior and Intrusion detection leveraging AWS Video Analytics with E&Y.

I have gone through your organization's requirements for Product Lead for Consumer Analytics, and I believe I would be a great fit for your organization with the required technical skills in C++, Python, Java, and SQL, as well as strong business skills.

I am looking forward to discussing the particulars of this position in more detail.

Sincerely,

Gunjan A Lunkad
